President's Column

In my column last month I challenged the lodge to help increase the membership to 300. This Monday, July 29th, we are celebrating St. Olaf's Day with a picnic at the Sons of Norway Park – this is a perfect opportunity to invite someone that could become a potential Sverdrup member.

One cannot say that our lodge sits idle – we are a bunch of active Norwegians! At our July business meeting, different cultural events were discussed – our lodge has a lot to offer – Bok Klubb, Needlecraft Group, Wood Carvers, Language Class, Lutefisk Dinner, there are scholarships available to attend Trollfjorden Camp or take a class such as Rosemaling, along with all the marvelous programs given at our monthly socials.

Consider the extras that get planned during the year, such as the trip to Nordic Fest in Decorah, IA, the Hjemkomst Festival in Moorhead, the Tidløs music group, or a trip to the Høstfest.

Along with all that, our lodge takes pride in being community minded. We deliver Meals on Wheels, bell ringers for the Salvation Army, support Arbor Day, serve the Banquet, present programs at the different care facilities in Bismarck/Mandan, just to name a few.

Then there's the financial products that Sons of Norway offers its members. So we can say, "No grass grows under our feet"!

Please share this with those "potential members" as they will see that Sverdrup Lodge has much to offer them as members.

Mange Takk for all you do!

Susan

Rosemaling

August 15, 16, 17—Not one, not two, but three Rosemaling styles in one class! Come and learn these three styles in a relaxed and fun atmosphere. In the Viksdal style you will work on linework. Then, building on linework, we move to the Setesdal style where we will work on strokes, dots, and teardrops. Finally, we will put it all together in the Telemark style. This will be a projects class, but you are encouraged to make each design your own. This class is open to students of all experience levels, but some experience using paints and brushes is helpful.

This workshop is provided by Vesterheim and will be held at the First Lutheran Church in Minot. This is the website for more information:
