President's Brev

Hei og god dag til deg. (Hi and good day to you.)

We have had great fall weather, superior to any other fall I can remember. I hope you enjoyed it.

Mange tusen takk (many thousand thanks) to all our lodge members who helped with serving our annual Lutefisk Dinner at the Mandan Eagles Club. Thanks to all who attended this event also. Special thanks to Dave Helland for being in charge of this event, Jerry Saude for hosting and Claudia Berg for managing the servers. Thanks also to Bismarck Boy Scouts and some volunteers from 1st Lutheran Church in Mandan for helping with the serving. Thanks to the Mandan Eagles for helping us with food preparation and hosting us. About 402 adult tickets and 19 youth tickets were sold so the dinner was a success. Everyone I have spoken to seemed pleased with how well the event went.

Thanks to Dan Sauerwein for his excellent presentation on genealogy at the Oct. Social. Dan may be offering some upcoming classes in the middle of November.

The nominating committee is looking for members to fill the positions of greeter, musician publicity director and marshal. The election of officers for 2025-2026 will be at the November business meeting.

Norwegian language classes are starting again in mid November with both beginner and advanced classes. Classes can be attended in person or virtual via zoom. The classes are free for our lodge members and a nominal fee is required for non-members or members of other lodges. Classes will be Monday evenings at 6 p.m. Contact our instructor Tom Marple at 701-663-1147 for more details. Thanks, Tom for all your hard work on teaching this class.

School supply donations are continuing. For the November social, continue donating #2 pencils, notebooks and paper folders.

It is lefse season again in Nordic culture. Our lodge will again be having lefse sales on Saturday, November 23rd, and Saturday, December 14th, at the Gateway Mall from 10 to 4 PM. We need volunteers to help. Call Jim Skaret at 258-4703 to sign up for a shift.

A note of thanks to Nanc Skaret for teaching hardanger classes at Touchmark. The classes were well received. We are looking for a way to teach rosemaling and knitting.

The Salvation Army is seeking bell ringing for the holiday season. Go to www.registertoring.com sign up or log in to pick your shift. You can also call LeeAnn at (701) 223-1889.

Ha der godt (Have it good)

Ken Lien
